“What is the straightforward path (the easiest and fastest among all the paths of Torah) that all the Jewish people should choose to realize the revelation of Moshiach? Learning the Torah concerning Melech HaMoshiach . . .”

The Rebbe, 6 Iyar 5751

“. . . the true and complete redemption has not yet actually come. It must be said then that there must be something that remains to be done that will bring the redemption into reality. . . This includes in particular learning the subject of Moshiach and Redemption . . . And since this is the divine service of the time, it is understood that this applies to every Jew without any exception whatsoever . . .”

The Rebbe, 25 MarCheshvan 5752
